

1214 Willow Circle
Nevada, MO 64772
December 13, 2017

Re: FCC Comment Filing
17-108

To Whom It May Concern:

I strongly favor net neutrality. Anything less is handing control over the major communication device in our society to corporate interests. A democracy requires equal access to all websites – not just those favored by a few controlling operations.

To end net neutrality is to set our society on a course toward censorship. Don't do it.

Sincerely,

/s Kathleen Kedigh

Kathleen Kedigh