Re: Applications of T-Mobile US, Inc., and Sprint Corporation for Consent To Transfer Control of Licenses and Authorizations, WT DOCKET NO. 18-197
REDACTED—FOR PUBLIC INSPECTION

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Pursuant to the Protective Order in the above-referenced proceeding<sup>1</sup> and the instructions set forth in the Commission's General Information and Document Request,<sup>2</sup> enclosed please find the unredacted Highly Confidential response of AT&T Inc. ("AT&T") to that Document Request. Specifically, enclosed is one copy of a hard drive containing the unredacted Highly Confidential document production and the index associated with the document production.

AT&T hereby requests Highly Confidential treatment of this submission.<sup>3</sup> Separately, AT&T is submitting a redacted public version of this filing via ECFS and a copy of the unredacted submission to Commission Staff.

<sup>3</sup> Pursuant to discussions with Staff, custodial documents being provided with this response, unless specifically reviewed and downgraded, have been classified as "Highly Confidential." Notwithstanding that default classification, AT&T does not intend to assert Highly Confidential status for any documents that have been publicly released (which would be Public) or for third-party materials that are copyrighted (which would be considered Confidential unless they contain the types of information described in Appendix A to the Protective Order), and AT&T will correct any such designations to the extent they are brought to AT&T's attention.
