

Fuck you. The fact that you assholes are destroying net neutrality even against ALMOST EVERY AMERICAN'S OPINION is disgraceful. Whats even more disgusting is you're all benefiting from this since big companies are paying you off for getting on your knees for them, and sucking em off like theres no tomorrow. No wonder Ajit Pai can't see what Americans want, all he can see is Verizon's cock slapping his face. Fuck you assholes, for destroying a once amazing platform for free speech, education, business ideas and innovation, as well as destroying a source of income for many Americans. Fuck you, I hope you get slapped upside the head.
