

I support Internet neutrality. I support fair and equal access to the Internet. I support democratic (lowercase) access to the Internet. If you vote to retract net neutrality, you are undermining democracy, disrupting the free exchange of expression, ideas and creativity and hindering, if not crippling, millions of businesses.