

The founders supported free access to information. The Restoring Internet Freedom ruling is antithetical to the values we hold dear as Americans. I'm just one citizen, but I am doing my part to resist this horrendous effort to kill net neutrality. If you vote in support of this ruling, your vote is not for the American people, but for profiteers off the American people. I support net neutrality and reject the Restoring Internet Freedom ruling.