

I support net neutrality and Title 2 oversight of ISPs.
You have an opportunity to act for the benefit of the future of the majority of humanity, or for the benefit of the minority. I ask you to consider which decision and consequences you will least regret.