

We strongly support INTERNET NEUTRALITY with equal access to internet speed and services.

We rely on wireless internet in our area and also use the internet for the main source of our news and information; the cornerstone of our democracy. We strongly oppose increased monetization of internet services.