

I strongly support Net Neutrality. So does anyone who values the freedom, privacy, and security of the American people over the interests of corporations and the lining of his own pockets. Do not destroy the world's greatest force for public discourse and information exchange in pursuit of a handful of dollars.

-Brian Terrill

12/13/17