

AT&T Inc.

Proposed Acquisition by T-Mobile US, Inc. of Sprint Corporation

NARRATIVE RESPONSE OF AT&T INC. TO FCC DATA REQUESTS

ISSUED ON SEPTEMBER 10, 2018

(Attachment B: Service Plan Data and Customer Data)

December 20, 2018

NARRATIVE RESPONSE TO FCC DATA REQUESTS:
SERVICE PLAN DATA AND CUSTOMER DATA

The file entitled “Service Plan Data_Cricket” contains information responsive to this request for AT&T’s prepaid plans offered by its Cricket subsidiary.<sup>1</sup> The files entitled “Customer Data_Postpaid,” “Customer Data_Branded Prepaid,” and “Customer Data_Cricket” contain information responsive to this request for AT&T’s postpaid, branded prepaid, and prepaid plans offered by its Cricket subsidiary, respectively.<sup>2</sup> As discussed with FCC Staff, AT&T’s response does not include information related to IoT/M2M connected services.

---

<sup>1</sup> AT&T does not in the ordinary course of business maintain the requested data in the manner requested. The data in the exhibits reflect AT&T’s best efforts to populate the FCC tables using data that AT&T does maintain in the ordinary course. [BEGIN HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION]

[END HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION] AT&T is providing data that it keeps in the ordinary course of business for retired plans, which, in Column H, “plan_years,” are indicated as ending before August 2018. Once a plan is retired, AT&T generally ceases to offer the plan to new customers but existing subscribers can generally stay on the plan if they make no changes to their subscriptions.

<sup>2</sup> AT&T does not in the ordinary course of business maintain the requested data in the manner requested. The data in the exhibits reflect AT&T’s best efforts to populate the FCC tables using data that AT&T does maintain in the ordinary course. [BEGIN HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION]

HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION]

[END

REDACTED—FOR PUBLIC INSPECTION

EXHIBITS REDACTED IN THEIR ENTIRETY
AS HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION