

I believe that the government should serve the people and I do not support the plan of corporate controlled internet. As a small business employee who manages our web presence, I am writing to protect our ability to freely communicate with our customers. I am in full support of a resolution of disapproval & a return to net neutrality.

Thank you,

Cassie phippen