FCC,

Before the internet I didn't know that the pain I felt from the verbal & emotional abuse my parents hurt me with was something other people endured too. I didn't know it was an existence that could be survived.

It was only after reading hundreds of other's stories that I began to see a better life worth living outside of the cage I was born into. I gathered these stories like so many heartbeats from all over the internet & they kept, and still keep, me moving forward.

Please keep the internet classified under Title II of the Communications Act. Protect those vulnerable, scared stories from being crushed or held back. DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL keep our internet open & uncensored. There is so much at stake here.

Thank you, sincerely, for your consideration,
