Dear Ms. Dortch:

Enclosed is a petition signed by 1,360 Illinois consumers, opposed to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) proposal to repeal the net neutrality protections passed by the commission in 2015.

This petition is in connection with docket number #17-108.

Thank you for your time, and please, let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Dear FCC Chairman Ajit Pai:

As an Illinois resident concerned about free and open access to the Internet, I oppose your plan to dismantle the common-sense "net neutrality" consumer protections the Federal Communications Commission approved in 2015.

The current rules STOP Internet Service Providers (ISPs) from these harmful practices:

- controlling our access to certain websites;
- forcing website operators to pay more to avoid content getting blocked or slowed;
- obstructing a competitor's internet services to favor their own.

Unfortunately, your plan seems to largely replace these rules with voluntary commitments by big Internet corporations to respect net neutrality in principle. Most customers who pay an internet or cable bill will tell you that's not a wise move.

This is not a partisan issue—people on both sides of the political aisle support the current net neutrality rules—but this is a pocketbook issue. If website operators like Amazon are forced to pay ISPs more for an "internet fast lane," they're more likely to charge us more for their services.

I urge the FCC to keep the current net neutrality protections in place. We are watching and we will not give up this fight.

Sincerely,

E A
