Drug/Alcohol Abuse	Miami Praise The Lord 11-16-90 Dr. Clifford and Nedda Horvath interview Garland Eastham, Founder and Executive Director of Faith Farm and Reverend Mike Brown, President of Fort Lauderdale Rescue Tabernacle's Faith Farm. Eastham explains that Faith Farm is a place in which men who are drug and alcohol abusers can come for rehabilitation. Brown's ministry is to help men to learn to live drug free. Faith Farm offers a variety of different methods, they have group sessions, one-on-one sessions, role-models, role playing and, of course, they have a church which all those in the program are required to attend. Bob Bashaw, an instructor at Faith Farm, and Charles Lakin, a Clinical Psychologist and Director of Alpha Training at Faith Farm explain the reason for most of these addictions. Bashaw says that the way these men cope with bitterness and anger is to turn to drugs and alcohol, which in reality is only a false and temporary solution to their problems. Lakin talks about the different programs that they offer to help these men, most of which have experienced denial in some form throughout their life. Faith farm has share groups, exercise programs and work therapy programs where these men are taught to realign their misbeliefs and be honest with themselves.	L	PA/O	11-16-90 11:30A	1:59:48

Drug/Alcohol Abuse	Miami Praise The Lord 11-30-90 Pastor Richard and Patrice Risi host an interview with Cleveland Bell, Executive Director of Riverside House. Bell himself was once entangled in the snare of drugs and alcohol, but was set free by the power of Jesus Christ. Now Riverside House offers a place of refuge to men who are in the same predicament as Bell once was. Riverside House also offers that same transforming, lasting solution to these addictions that Bell found, which is salvation through Jesus Christ. Bell shares how that Riverside House's rehabilitation program also includes family counseling, life skills, getting a job, Bible reading and so forth, which they feel is necessary for a well rounded rehabilitation process. Attorney Harold Ray moderates a panel discussion on the pervasiveness of drugs/alcohol in society, especially among the youth, some of the causes, their effect on the families, and some ways to control and, hopefully, prevent use and/or addiction. Panelists: Rev. Mike Brown, Director of Fort Lauderdale Rescue Tabernacle's Faith Farm, Boynton Beach, Florida; Dr. Chuck Lakin, Director of Alpha Training at the Faith Farm; Mr. Bob Bashaw, instructor in Alpha training at the Faith Farm, himself a former alcoholic. To indicate the magnitude of the problems resulting from the compulsive use of drugs and alcohol, the Federal Government has allocated half a billion dollars to develop programs and research into the monstrous problem. The 200 or more different types of support groups in the area addressing this problem are seeing more violence, more drug wars, more drop-outs from school, teen suicide, and divorce rates.

He described a new program in Orange County for teens arrested for drunk driving. After 569 offenders went through the program, only one has become a repeat offender. Teens are taught about drug and alcohol abuse and are required to talk to victims of accidents involving substance abuse. They are also required to visit the morgue and attend an autopsy. Viewers are told to call and have Mr. Rodriguez speak to their schools or churches about substance abuse and teen offenders.

	Jerry and Sandi Barnard devote most of today's program to an interview with Sonny and Julie Arguinzoni, pastors of Victory Outreach Ministries; Victory Outreach is a drug rehabilitation center as well as a church. Sonny told viewers his personal story about coming out of drugs. He was involved with gangs in New York City but now ministers to those wishing to become drug free and former addicts. He and Julie told viewers how to become involved through their churches in helping former drug users re-enter normal life. He explained that the churches must go into the streets to become effective against drugs taking over neighborhoods. Viewers are told they are the ones to teach people how to fight against drugs taking over communities.

Ben Kinchlow hosted the program with primary guest Smokey Robinson. Smokey told viewers how, although he grew up poor and living in a ghetto, he did not realize it. He told viewers that life 30 years ago was much different than today and today's ghetto life is terrible. Smokey then compared the drug scene 30 years ago to now and began to reveal his own problems with drug and alcohol abuse. He said that cocaine has destroyed more lives than heroin ever did. "Crack" is affordable and is now considered a world-wide epidemic problem. Viewers are told that unlike years ago, today's youth do not have a plan for their future. Years ago peer pressure was to get a job or go to college. Today peer pressure is to get as much money as fast as possible. Pastor Charles Schmitz, Founder -Headmaster of Christian Liberty Academy. Pastor Schmitz explains in detail a very cost effective way to start and operate a private school. Most parents especially Christians would love to sent their child to a private school, but with the cost of living these days and the high price you must pay for more personalized education, most parents cannot afford to put their child (or children) in a private school. Schmitz shows us how his school is able to cut costs and explains to us that at the Christian Liberty Academy they charge a child only $60.00 per month to attend that's quite a difference compared to what you pay at most any other private school in South Florida.

Gunther explains the Encore program as being one of the extensions of the Kelly Temporary Services. This program is directed for service to the elderly and senior citizens most of which are retired and no longer have a steady income from any type of job. The Encore program is a means by which the retired senior citizen can work temporary jobs, through the assistance of Kelly Temporary Services. This is a great help financially to those who are on social security. It's a way for them to help supplement their income.

	Pastor Issaiah and Gloria Williams interview Dr. Gene Neill, Executive Director of World-Wide Prison Ministries. Neill shares about how he at one time was involved in a lot of big crimes such as bank robbery and the like. Neill was sentenced to 50 years in jail having just four walls a floor and a ceiling, no doors no windows, just toilet paper and a little bit of water. It was mental torment and to think that for the next 50 years of his life he would just sit there and grow old as he stared at the walls of this cell and the days slowly passed by. Neill had no concept of time neither would he know day from night. In his desperation, Neill got down on his cell floor naked as he was and begged God to save him. The Lord became not only			10-27-90 4:30A	1:59:48

	Pastor Richard and Patrice Risi host an interview with Cleveland Bell the Executive Director of Riverside House. Bell explains how he was a crook at one time. He used to stand in soup lines and watch for a lady passing by the he could snatch a purse from. One day he did just that but, beings he was only 120 pounds, the lady was able to knock him down and he was caught by the police, arrested and thrown in jail. Bell was out of jail two days later but he wound up back in trouble only to find himself in jail again, only this time he had to serve a sentence. During his stay in prison he met someone who shared with him about God. Bell accepted the Lord and one by one he was delivered from the habits that had held him in bondage.			TOPIC SEGMENT DURATION 20:00

As an example Sandler says that it is not wise to leave your purse or wallet in your cart as you shop. As quickly as you are able to reach over and grab a can of peas, you may also quickly find that before you even have time to look up, your money has been snatched. Sandler gives us some real life instances in which people have become a victim of crime by their own negligence and she gives us very practical ways to avoid this type of thing happening to us.

	Hosts, Pastor Bill and Esther Illnisky interview Bill Kelly, Retired FBI Agent and Obscenity Consultant with the Broward County Sheriffs Office. Kelly speaks of the obscenity laws and the Miami based rock group 2 Live Crew. The federal judge declared their record "Nasty as the Wanna Be" by 2 Live Crew to be obscene and he ban its distribution in three major counties of South Florida. Kelly gives statistics concerning the 2 Live Crew prosecution, on how many letters and phone calls the Sheriff's Office received on this matter. He says that the sheriff has received 2,673 favorable and 201 unfavorable telephone calls and he has received 614 favorable and 66 unfavorable letters. So Kelly says, it's running 13 to one in favor of prosecuting 2 Live Crew. Kelly says that you would not be likely to hear about this in the media. Host says that media does not want to express the desires of decency by the average citizen.

	Host, Pastor Bill and Esther Illinsky, interview Steve Cronk, Miami Area Director, Prison Fellowship USA. Cronk explains how he was involved in a life of crime and in December of 1981 he found himself behind steel bars as a prison inmate. There at the lowest point in his life, Jesus became real to him. Today he has not forgotten where he came from and who brought him out. Now he seeks to make Jesus known to those who are still behind bars. He says that the soaring crime rates, high recidivism and broken families illustrate the challenge that lies before us (Christians).		TOPIC SEGMENT DURATION		15:00

	Attorney, Harold Ray moderates a panel discussion on the crime of obscenity/pornography. Panelists: Vincent Rizzitello, a detective with the Organized Crime Division, Gary Daughenbaugh, also a detective with the same police department, James S. Benjamin, Criminal Defense Attorney point out that the Supreme Court has defined obscenity in a three-pronged test that is difficult to prove. The panelists discussed methods whereby obscenity can be proven as a crime. The detectives point out that what they seek to eradicate is hard core pornography, but Mr. Benjamin defended the rights of adults to view whatever they choose. Cross-discussion resulted in what made obscenity a crime followed.
