Drug/Alcohol Abuse Cont	John Read from the Santa Ana Police Dept. and Bruce Hessler of the Irvine, CA Police Dept. explained D.A.R.E to host, Jim McClellan. DARE is a program that teaches methods of resistance that can be used to resist drugs and to establish a good liason relationship between the Police Department and young children and teenagers. Prevention of drug abuse through this program begins in the grade school prepare level and goes through Jr High School and helps kids prepare for peer pressure they will get in High School. A separate program division addressed High School age youth and teaches them to prepare for adult responsibility toward drugs and alcohol.

	Jim McClellan introduced Dr. Alexander De Jong, author of "Alcoholism and Co-Dependency". Viewers were told tjat there are "coping alcoholics" such as presidents of companies that carry on a daily workload. Dr. De Jong described alcohol addiction as a "monkey on your back" and Jim McClellan told viewers that they must learn to recognize generational "red flags" which indicate the tendency toward alcohoism. Examples of life pressures that result in people turning toward alcohol to relax and be able to cope were given. Viewers were told alcoholics can drink and keep control and that a drunkard can quit but an alcoholic cannot. Steps to take to begin to recognize alcohol as a personal problem and steps to take to get help were given.

Ron gives us the shocking statistics that there are over 30 million people living on the streets without a place to call home. In Miami there are over 5,000 people who live in the streets and in the winter that number doubles to 10,000 homeless. Maida says that she cooks for at least 400 people every Saturday but, this does not even touch near the number of people that are out there. 	Guest, Ray Fico, Director of Covering Wings , informed viewers how he and his wife started supplying blankets to the homeless. Ray told host, Jim McClellan, that he has designed a poncho/blanket that has multiple uses for street people. Viewers were told that homeless people are not old, drunken men but teenagers, women and children as well as men. Children and youth are selling drugs and their bodies to obtain enough money to eat. Ray said he is now sending blankets all over America due to his exposure on the program previously and encourages viewers to begin a similar project in their areas of the country.
