Re: Translator T.V., Inc.

Dear Jim:

We are filing Articles of Incorporation today for Translator T.V., Inc.

The officers and directors will be Paul, Jane and Rev. Phillip Espinoza. Rev. Espinoza has broadcast over Channel 40 for several years.

We need your input on how the new corporation should relate to T.B.N., Inc. At the beginning it will be dependent upon loans from Trinity. We anticipate in the future, however, that it could receive offerings and could charge T.B.N. for its expenses in broadcasting programs. Revenue on a cost sharing basis could also come from local programmers.

The translator sites will undoubtedly be leased. Should Trinity be the lessee or guarantor?

Do you have a recommendation with respect to the translator equipment itself? That is, which corporation should own it?

Finally, in those states where we have existing corporations, such as Washington, Colorado and Texas, should we use the new entity and if so, should it bear any relationship to the new corporation?

I anticipate we will hold our first meeting of Translator T.V., Inc. this week. Officers will be elected at that time. Next week we hope to begin preparing our exemption application. It would be helpful to hear from you by then.

Very truly yours,

JUGGERT & WAYMAN
