MOTION FOR ACCEPTANCE OF REPLY NUNC PRO TUNC

The Missouri State Conference of Branches of the NAACP, the St. Louis Branch of the NAACP and the St. Louis County Branch of the NAACP (collectively "NAACP"), by counsel, respectfully request acceptance of their contemporaneously filed "Reply to Opposition to Motion to Enlarge" nunc pro tunc.

The Reply is submitted one working day out of time. It is being served by hand rather than by mail so that no delay in the resolution of this matter will attend today's filing.

It is late filed because one of the issues involves attorney client privilege. The Corporate Counsel of the National NAACP in Baltimore must sign off before such arguments are advanced by NAACP participating attorneys. Regrettably, he could not be reached before the time for filing expired Friday. He has now approved the filing.

Counsel apologizes for the delay. He notes that it is de minimis and will neither prejudice any party nor delay the resolution of the motion or of this case. The NAACP, with few resources and with pro bono counsel, has met virtually all deadlines. Thus, it is respectfully requested that this Motion be granted.
