Re: Transmittal Nos. 741, 786, CC Docket No. 95-145

Dear Mr. Caton:

On November 22, 1995, AT&T Corp. ("AT&T") filed a Motion for Extension of Time to file its Comments on Bell Atlantic's Direct Case in the above-referenced proceeding. AT&T sought the same treatment requested by MCI Telecommunications Corporation ("MCI") in its Motion for Extension of Time filed on November 20, 1995. Specifically, AT&T requested that the Commission extend the deadline for filing Comments until 30 days after receipt of certain confidential information redacted from Bell Atlantic's Direct Case, pursuant to the same terms of confidentiality being negotiated by Bell Atlantic and MCI under the auspices of Commission staff.

By Order released November 22, 1995 (DA 95-2380), the Common Carrier Bureau ("Bureau") denied MCI's Motion. In that Order (para. 3), the Bureau indicated that Commission staff is reviewing MCI's concerns regarding the terms of non-disclosure, and that it will provide MCI an opportunity to supplement the record when the confidentiality issue is resolved.

In light of the Bureau's action with regard to MCI's Motion, AT&T hereby withdraws its Motion for Extension of Time. However, as an active participant in this proceeding, AT&T reserves its right to request access to the confidential information withheld by Bell Atlantic, and to gain such access pursuant to the same terms upon which the Commission may establish for disclosure of such information to MCI.

Respectfully submitted,

Ava B. Kleinman /ha
