

Docket 93-144, and to make comment regarding the appropriateness of the FCC's proposals. It is apparent that adoption of the proposals in Docket 93-144 will have a direct impact on the demand for government spectrum. Accordingly, inclusion in the discussion of those proposals and the obvious results of possible adoption is appropriate.

About The Author

Robert H. Schwaninger, Jr. is a partner in the Washington, D.C. law firm of Brown and Schwaninger. The firm represents the following list of SMR operators and interested persons which will be adversely affected by adoption of the FCC's proposals in Docket 93-144. On behalf of the following persons and entities and the tens of thousands customers served by the small businesses represented herein, Brown and Schwaninger urges the Department of Commerce to become involved in the debate over the issues presented herein, to determine whether the FCC's intended actions will result in an arbitrary demand for federal government spectrum arising out of the improper displacement of existing radio operators.
