Re: CC Docket No. 96-61

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
OFFICE OF SECRETARY

Dear Mr. Carpenter:

The Telecommunications Act of 1996, which became law on February 8, 1996, requires the Commission to adopt rules by August 8, 1996, to ensure that "a provider of interstate interexchange services shall provide such services to its subscribers in each State at rates no higher than the rates charged to its subscribers in any other State." 47 U.S.C. Section 254(g). "States" are defined in the Communications Act to include United States Territories and possessions. On March 21, 1996, the Commission issued a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to implement this requirement. Policy and Rules Concerning the Interstate, Interexchange Marketplace, Implementation of section 254 (g) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (Notice of Proposed Rulemaking), CC Docket No. 96-61, FCC 96-123, released March 25, 1996. The Commission is now reviewing the record in that proceeding.

In connection with our consideration of CC Docket No. 96-61, AT&T Corp. is requested to submit, within two weeks, a plan for implementing Section 254(g) as applied to the interexchange services your company provides to Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands and American Samoa. The plan should include proposed rates, the timetable for introducing these rates, and any other matters regarding implementation of rate integration about which you would like to comment.

You are requested to submit an original and five copies of your response to Secretary, Federal Communications Commission, 1919 M Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20554. Your response will be placed in the public file of CC Docket No. 96-61. Please send one additional copy each to Sherille Ismail and Neil Fried, Federal Communications Commission, Room 518, 1919 M Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20554.
