Re: Ex Parte Presentation
IB 96-261 International Settlement Rates

Dear Mr. Caton:

On Monday, June 2, 1997, Mark Baker, Gerald Lowrie, Tom Luciano and I of AT&T met with Rudy Baca of Commissioner Quello's office to discuss AT&T's views expressed in its comments. The attached material was also used in our discussion.

Two copies of this Notice are being submitted to the Secretary of the Federal Communications Commission in accordance with Section 1.1206(a)(1) of the Commission's rules.

Sincerely,

LRIC or Proxy Needed for Access to Foreign Bottleneck Facilities

- High end of benchmarks (15, 19, 23 cents) not adequate to limit power when foreign carrier enters US market.
- If foreign carrier will not agree to reduce settlement rate to LRIC through bilateral negotiation, then Commission should mandate LRIC.
- If LRIC not available, using low end of Benchmark Range (6-9 cents) as proxy will go long way toward prevention of market power leverage in U.S.

Consumers will pay for lower rates and U.S. carriers will not be forced to contribute to subsidize foreign carriers.

With GATS, countries will look to US to interpret cost based interconnection obligation.

For BT/MCI, it's the right principle; cost about 5.5 cents --not far to go.

For Telmex/Sprint, ECO fails to...
