Report No. CCB/CPD 98-22

Released: March 25, 1998

PLEADING CYCLE ESTABLISHED FOR COMMENTS ON TARIFFS IMPLEMENTING ACCESS CHARGE REFORM

CC Docket No. 97-250

COMMENTS: April 2, 1998

REPLY COMMENTS: April 8, 1998

On December 30, 1997, the Common Carrier Bureau (Bureau) initiated an investigation into the provisions contained in incumbent local exchange carrier (LEC) access charge reform tariffs.¹ On January 28, 1998, the Bureau designated the specific issues for investigation in this proceeding in a separate order.² The Access Charge Reform Designation Order established a pleading cycle with direct cases to be filed by the parties no later than February 27, 1998, comments or oppositions responding to the direct cases to be filed no later than March 16, 1998, and rebuttals to comments or oppositions to be filed no later than March 23, 1998.³

Several LECs (see Attachment A) have recently filed revisions to their access charge reform tariffs that raise issues related to the issues designated in the Access Charge Reform Tariffs Designation Order. Because parties may not have had an opportunity to comment on the investigation issues raised in these tariff filings, interested parties may file oppositions/comments on these tariff filings by April 2, 1998. Replies may be filed by April 8, 1998. When filing comments and/or replies, please reference the internal file number: CCB/CPD 98-22.

An original and four copies of all comments and replies must be filed in accordance with Section 1.51(c) of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.51(c). In addition, one copy of each pleading must be filed with International Transcription Service (ITS), the Commission's duplicating contractor, at its office at 1231 20th Street, N.W. Washington, D.C. 20036 and one copy with the Chief, Competitive Pricing Division, Room 518, 1919 M Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20554.

For further information, contact Dan Abeyta, Competitive Pricing Division, Common Carrier Bureau at (202) 418-1530.
