I am writing to request full funding of the universal service fund. As evidenced by the over $2 billion in applications requests thus far, schools and libraries need the full $2.25 billion to ensure access via telecommunications services, Internet access, and internal connections. Please preserve the full amount to ensure equal access to electronic information.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Members, Illinois State Library Advisory Committee

FROM: Kathleen Bloomberg

RE: Comments submitted to the Federal Communications Commission

DATE: May 20, 1998

A copy of a statement about telecommunications discounts (e-rates), approved at yesterday's advisory committee meeting and submitted to the Federal Communications Commission, is enclosed. As discussed at the meeting, you may wish to share a copy of the comments with your Congressman, emphasizing the importance of the e-rate program to libraries and schools.

Please let me know if you have any questions.
