

1. State: Indiana
2. Company Examined: Ameritech, GTE, Sprint/United (Ameritech and Sprint/United information is confidential by order of Indiana Commission and is not available for FCC review at this time).
3. Model:BCPM 3.1
4. Support Estimates:
5. Support Area: wire center
6. Lines Supported: GTE provides estimates for primary residential, primary business and multiline business.
7. Changes in Platform:
no changes to the platform
8. Changes in Inputs:

(confidentiality prevents the Commission from giving specific information regarding the inputs of carriers other than GTE).

GTE changed the BCPM Version 3.1 default values for the following inputs:

cost of money;
depreciation lives and salvage values;
fill factors for feeder;
structure mix assumptions;
structure sharing assumptions.
network support investments;
operating expenses, as percent of investment;
operating expenses, on a per line basis;
percent local and toll calls;
poles and anchors & guys
manholes; and
special access line ratio.

9. Cost of Capital:
GTE 11.25%

10. Use by State: No intrastate non-rural universal service program exists in Indiana.

11. Other:

Provides complete listing for GTE of ARMIS accounts included in the joint and common basket and calculation of joint and common costs..