

60000869442.txt

It is necessary to keep in mind that the fans are the same taxpayers who build stadiums and (for now) keep the NFL and other leagues tax-free entities. Regulation to withhold games from the very taxpayers who fund the games is misuse of a government with good intentions for free enterprise. Please strike down this rule as proposed.