

60000870853.txt

How the hell could anyone think giving this kind of power to cable companies is a good idea. Cable companies already are fucking over the American people for no good reason, and the government just lets it happen. When 9/11 happened, did we hand the terrorists more weapons and give them priority boarding? That's basically what we're doing by eliminating Net Neutrality. Shut this down, or willingly fuck over America. Your choice.