

Federal Communications Commission
Washington, D.C. 20554

October 6, 2014

Ms. Marlene Dortch
Secretary
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Re: Protecting and Promoting the Open Internet, GN Docket No. 14-28

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Thursday, October 2, 2014, the Office of Strategic Planning and Policy Analysis of the Federal Communications Commission hosted the fifth in a series of staff-led Open Internet Roundtable Discussions entitled "Economics of Broadband: Market Successes and Market Failures."<sup>1</sup> The purpose of this roundtable was for Commission staff and interested parties to further examine the actions the Commission should take toward its goal of protecting and promoting Internet openness.

With this letter, the related video recording available online at <http://www.fcc.gov/events/open-internet-roundtable-economics> is submitted into the docket for the above-captioned proceeding.

Respectfully Submitted,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Tim Brennan", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Tim Brennan
Chief Economist
Office of Strategic Planning and Policy Analysis
Federal Communications Commission

---

<sup>1</sup> See The Office of Strategic Planning & Policy Analysis Announces Panelist Information for Open Internet Roundtable, GN Docket No. 14-28, Public Notice, DA 14-1385 (rel. Sept. 24, 2014); FCC Announces Series of Open Internet Roundtable Discussions, GN Docket No. 14-28, Public Notice, DA 14-1152 (rel. Aug. 8, 2014).