

60000971519.txt

Please do not give concessions to cable companies. Do not limit internet access. Do not give them the ability to offer more broadband to certain companies that pay for it. This is in violation of free market economic principles and will serve to not only stifle competition and economic development via the internet but increase costs for the average american.