RE: Petition of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission for Declaratory Order On Whether State Public Utility Commissions Are Entitled to Adjudicate Intercarrier Compensation Disputes Involving the Exchange of Local Dial-Up Internet Traffic Between Carriers with Indirect Interconnection, WC Docket No. 14-70

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Pursuant to Section 1.1206 of the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC) rules, undersigned counsel files this notice concerning a telephonic conference call between the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (PAPUC) and the FCC staff held on October 6, 2014. The meeting generally discussed the above-captioned proceeding.

The members of the FCC who participated on the conference call were Victoria Goldberg, Robin Cohn, Deena Shetler, and Pamela Arluk of the Wireline Competition Bureau (collectively, "FCC Staff"). Those in attendance from the PAPUC were Norman Kennard, counsel to PAPUC Chairman Powelson; Matthew Totino, Legal Counsel to Vice-Chairman John Coleman, Jr., Rhonda Staver, Telecommunications Analyst to Vice-Chairman John Coleman, Jr.; Joseph Witmer, Legal Counsel to Commissioner Gladys Brown, Lois Burns, Legal Counsel to Commissioner Pamela Witmer, and Labros Pilalis, Telecommunications Analyst to Commissioner James Cawley, and Deputy Chief Counsel Kathryn Sophy, Assistant Counsel Shaun Sparks and Assistant Counsel David E. Screven of the PAPUC's Law Bureau (collectively, "PaPUC Staff").

The purpose of the conference call was to respond to the FCC Staff's request for a more detailed explanation of state authority to address the traffic at issue in the PAPUC's Petition for Declaratory Order (Pa PUC Petition). The PAPUC reiterated its view that the 2001 ISP Remand Order and related subsequent FCC orders and directives provide the PAPUC and other state commissions with appropriate authority to enforce and adjudicate the intercarrier compensation rates and terms established by the FCC for locally dialed ISP-bound traffic exchanged between competitive local exchange carriers. Please find attached a summary of the PaPUC's oral presentation attached as Exhibit A.

Thank you for your attention to this correspondence.

Sincerely,

The Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission,
