

60000972645.txt

This is a blatant monopolization: more so than what we already have in the U.S.'s cable industry. Comcast oohs a terrible company that only wishes to make money off of the suffering and complaints of thousands of customers. They do not care about the consumer, and the evidence for this is so apparent that one would have to be actively ignoring it to not realize that this merger should not be allowed. It should be stopped immediately without question.