

60000973210.txt

Our Deaf residents are very vulnerable to crime and emergencies, such as flash floods and wildfires here in Colorado. They need the ability to text 911 for communication in emergencies.

Being able to text 911 can also save the lives of hearing crime victims, since they can text quietly and not have to speak, enabling criminals to find them hiding.