

60000973785.txt

Denver911 worked collaboratively with members of the deaf and hard of hearing communities six years ago to establish and provide direct access to Denver911 via text and email. Over the years, the system has worked effectively. I am very excited to see direct access to 911 via text as a national movement.