OBJECTION TO REQUEST FOR ACCESS TO HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
INFORMATION AND VIDEO PROGRAMMING CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Pursuant to the Modified Joint Protective Order in the captioned proceeding,¹ CBS Corporation, Scripps Networks Interactive, Inc., The Walt Disney Company, Time Warner Inc., Twenty First Century Fox, Inc., Univision Communications Inc. and Viacom Inc., (collectively, the “Content Companies”) hereby object to the requests for access to Highly Confidential Information (“HCI”) and Video Programming Confidential Information (“VPCI”) submitted by or on behalf of each individual listed on Exhibit A hereto (“Submitting Individuals”).

The Submitting Individuals have each filed an Acknowledgement of Confidentiality seeking access to HCI and VPCI submitted to the Commission in this proceeding.² Sixty-nine of the Submitting Individuals are Outside Counsel or Outside Consultants for Comcast, a party to the proposed transaction (the “Comcast Submitting Individuals”). Seven of the Submitting ¹ In the Matter of Application of Comcast Corp. and Time Warner Cable Inc. for Consent to Assign or Transfer Control of Licenses and Authorization, Modified Joint Protective Order, MB Docket No. 14-57, DA 14-1464 (Oct. 7, 2014). All capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein are defined in the Modified Joint Protective Order.

² A copy of the Acknowledgments (and the cover letter that accompanied the Acknowledgments) is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

Individuals are Outside Counsel (or their employee) for Time Warner Cable, another party to the proposed transaction (the “TWC Submitting Individuals”). The remaining 30 Submitting Individuals are not affiliated with any of the parties to the proposed transaction (the “Remaining Submitting Individuals”). These Acknowledgements were posted to the Commission website on October 10, 2014. No other Acknowledgments seeking access to HCI or VPCI were posted to the Commission Website on October 10, 2014.³

In the case of the Comcast Submitting Individuals, the Content Companies object to the disclosure of HCI or VPCI produced by any party other than Comcast to the Comcast Submitting Individuals (and any of the Comcast Submitting Individuals’ respective employees, as those terms are defined in Paragraph 13 of the Modified Joint Protective Order).⁴ In the case of the TWC Submitting Individuals, the Content Companies object to the disclosure of HCI or VPCI produced by any party other than Time Warner Cable to the TWC Submitting Individuals (and any of the TWC Submitting Individuals’ respective employees, as those terms are defined in Paragraph 13 of the Modified Joint Protective Order). In the case of the Remaining Submitting Individuals, the Content Companies object to the disclosure of HCI or VPCI produced by any party to the Remaining Submitting Individuals (and any of the Remaining Submitting

³ Under the Modified Joint Protective Order, no individual may access the Content Companies’ HCI or VPCI until the Content Companies “have an opportunity to object to the disclosure” of such information. Modified Joint Protective Order ¶ 8. Under the Order, the Content Companies have no notice of—and therefore no opportunity to object to—an Acknowledgment until notice of the Acknowledgment has been “posted to the Commission’s web page for this proceeding” at <http://www.fcc.gov/transaction/att-directv>. Id. ¶ 7 & n.7.

Individuals' respective employees, as those terms are defined in Paragraph 13 of the Modified Joint Protective Order).

I. None of the Submitting Individuals Should Be Permitted To Access HCI or VPCI.

The Content Companies' objection rests on their longstanding objection to permitting any individual to access their highly confidential carriage agreements with the transaction parties and related negotiation materials. Instead, the Bureau should follow the same approach the Commission has successfully implemented in other proceedings pursuant to which Commission personnel review HCI or VPCI in the custody of the Department of Justice. Alternatively, the Bureau should place only the relevant portions of VPCI in the public record and redact and/or anonymize certain of the information contained in those materials. This is especially appropriate here, where none of the Submitting Individuals has made a particularized, good-faith showing as to why each needs access to the Content Companies' VPCI. The substance of this objection is set forth more fully in the Application for Review filed by the Content Companies in the captioned proceeding on October 14, 2014.

This objection is applicable even though the Comcast Submitting Individuals and TWC Submitting Individuals are affiliated with certain parties to the proposed transaction. The Content Companies' HCI and the VPCI are subject to strict restrictions on access. The Comcast Submitting Individuals and the TWC Submitting Individuals have made no showing that they would be entitled to access the Content Companies' HCI and VPCI in the absence of the Commission's grant of access to such information in this proceeding. Indeed, under the confidentiality provisions of many carriage agreements, most (if not all) of the employees of a third-party purchaser of one of the parties to a carriage agreement are prohibited from knowing the terms of that agreement until after the purchase closes—and even then, access to the agreement's terms may continue to be tightly restricted.

It makes no difference whether Comcast, Time Warner Cable, any of the Comcast Submitting Individuals, or any of the TWC Submitting Individuals would be entitled to access to HCI and VPCI if the proposed transaction closes; there is no guarantee that it will, and the Content Companies do not believe any of the Comcast Submitting Individuals or TWC Submitting Individuals currently has the right to access the Content Companies' HCI and VPCI.⁵

Moreover, even if Comcast or some Comcast Submitting Individuals would otherwise have a right to access this information, it cannot be the case that 45 Outside Counsel (from three different law firms) and 24 Outside Consultants—plus their employees—need access to the Content Companies' most sensitive information, including VPCI, to provide legal or consulting services to Comcast in connection with the Commission's review of the proposed transaction. Likewise, even if Time Warner Cable or some TWC Submitting Individuals would otherwise have a right to access this information, it cannot be the case that seven Outside Counsel plus their employees need access to the Content Companies' most sensitive information, including VPCI, to provide legal or consulting services to Time Warner Cable in connection with the Commission's review of the proposed transaction. The volume of individuals seeking access to the Content Companies' HCI and VPCI increases the likelihood of even inadvertent misuse of that information and makes it more difficult to detect the source of any improper use of that information. And the fact that some subset of one of the transaction parties' lawyers may have had access to certain agreements of the other parties does not justify access for all lawyers for both parties to all agreements. Otherwise, if the transactions do not close, there is an unacceptably high risk that one transaction party may later use for its benefit the terms of the other transaction party's deals.

⁵ In other proceedings, Comcast has taken the position that its highly confidential information should be entitled to enhanced protection because it contains some of its "most sensitive business information" and "[d]isclosure of this material to [Comcast's] competitors and/or parties with whom [Comcast does] business ... would have a series negative effect on their business and place [Comcast] at a significant competitive disadvantage." Letter from Michael H. Hammer, Counsel for Comcast Corporation, et al., to William T. Lake, Chief, Media Bureau, FCC, MB Docket No. 10-56 (Filed Apr. 27, 2010); see also Letter from Michael H. Hammer, Counsel to SpectrumCo LLC, et al., to Marlene H. Dortch, Secretary, FCC, WT Docket No. 12-4 (filed Feb. 9, 2012); In re Joint Petition for Declaratory Ruling That the Liberty Order Does Not Authorize Third-Party Subpoenas, filed by Comcast Corp., et al, MB Docket No. 11-14 (submitted Jan. 12, 2011), at 10.

II. The Content Companies Specifically Object to Disclosure of HCI and VPCI to Certain Submitting Individuals.

Even if some individuals are permitted to access HCI or VPCI, there are additional reasons why the following individuals should not be permitted to access HCI or VPCI.

A. Attorneys and Consultants Representing DISH Network

Pantelis Michalopoulos, Christopher Bjornson, Lucrezio Figurelli, William Zarukas, Martha Rogers, and David Sappington have sought access to HCI and VPCI on behalf of DISH Network ("DISH Submitting Individuals). They should not be permitted to access such information.

Pantelis Michalopoulos and Christopher Bjornson are affiliated with the law firm Steptoe Johnson LLP ("Steptoe"), and they have been or are currently involved in Competitive Decision-Making and are therefore expressly prohibited under the terms of the Modified Joint Protective Order from viewing HCI or VPCI. Steptoe advises clients on distribution and retransmission consent matters.⁶ In fact, Mr. Michalopolous has submitted at least one communication to the Commission that reveals he has been involved in Competitive Decision-Making on behalf of

DISH Network.⁷ To counsel on retransmission consent matters, attorneys necessarily must consult with their clients and colleagues concerning Competitive Decision-Making matters. Thus it is highly unlikely that counsel who lobby and advocate on retransmission matters for DISH would have no interaction on Competitive Decision-Making matters with their client.

Indeed, DISH's counsel at Steptoe itself has urged the Commission to protect sensitive, proprietary information in the context of a different proposed merger. In connection with a proposed transaction to which DISH was a party, its counsel warned that the "inadvertent or intentional" disclosure of proprietary data to competitors "would have a devastating effect on [DISH's] business and place the companies at a significant competitive disadvantage."⁸ The Content Companies share that very concern with regard to disclosure of HCI and VCPI in this proceeding.

In addition, based on prior Commission findings, there is a significant probability that the DISH Submitting Individuals will not adequately protect the Content Companies' VPCI, and as a consequence of a lapse in protection, risk competitive harm in the video program distribution marketplace and otherwise disserve the public interest.⁹ Several courts also have noted DISH's

⁷ See, e.g., Letter from Pantelis Michalopoulos, Counsel to DISH Network, to Marlene H. Dortch, Secretary, FCC, MB Docket No. 13-191 (filed Oct. 25, 2013) (discussing details of DISH's retransmission negotiations with Media General Communications Holding).

⁹ In reviewing DISH's proposal to merge with Hughes, in which Steptoe represented DISH, the Commission noted that the Cable Bureau admonished EchoStar for failure to timely disclose that information it was treating as confidential had been publicly disclosed, thus failing in its 'duty of candor' to the agency, EchoStar Satellite Corp. v. Young Broadcasting, 16 FCC Red 15070 (Cable Bur. 2001).

negligence in handling litigation documents.¹⁰ These hazards are further discussed in the Content Companies' Application for Review and Request for Stay filed on October 14, 2014.

B. Additional Steptoe Attorneys

Markham Erickson, Damon Kalt, Natalya Seay, and James M. Hobbs have sought access to HCI and VPCI. They should not be permitted to access such information.

Mr. Erickson, Mr. Kalt, Ms. Seay, and Mr. Hobbs are employed by Steptoe, the same firm that is representing DISH Network in this proceeding. As referenced above and in the Content Companies' prior objection, Steptoe attorneys who have filed Acknowledgments of Confidentiality in these proceedings are engaged in Competitive Decision-Making.¹¹ Steptoe advises clients on distribution and retransmission consent matters.¹² To counsel on retransmission consent matters, attorneys necessarily must consult with their colleagues concerning Competitive Decision-Making matters. Thus it is highly unlikely that counsel who lobby and advocate on Competitive Decision-Making matters for DISH Network, a Steptoe client that has a history of at least being negligent in its handling of sensitive documents in litigation and before the Commission, would have no interaction on Competitive Decision-Making matters with attorneys representing another content distributor in these proceedings.

C. Ellen Stutzman

Ellen Stutzman has submitted an Acknowledgment of Confidentiality on behalf of the Writers Guild of America, West. Ms. Stutzman, who serves as the Director of Research & Public Policy with Writers Guild of America, West, does not qualify as Outside Counsel or as an Outside Consultant and therefore should be prohibited under the terms of the Modified Joint Protective Order from viewing HCI or VPCI. Accordingly, Ms. Stutzman should not be granted access to HCI or VPCI.

D. Carmelia Miller and Paul Goodman

Carmelia Miller and Paul Goodman have submitted Acknowledgments of Confidentiality on behalf of the Greenlining Institute. Ms. Miller and Mr. Goodman, who serve as in-house counsel at the Greenlining Institute, do not qualify as Outside Counsel or as Outside Consultants and therefore should be prohibited under the terms of the Modified Joint Protective Order from viewing HCI or VPCI. Accordingly, Ms. Miller and Mr. Goodman should not be granted access to HCI or VPCI.

E. Stephanie Chen

Stephanie Chen has submitted an Acknowledgment of Confidentiality on behalf of the Greenlining Institute. Ms. Chen, who serves as Energy and Telecommunications Policy Director at the Greenlining Institute, does not qualify as Outside Counsel or as an Outside Consultant and therefore should be prohibited under the terms of the Modified Joint Protective Order from viewing HCI or VPCI. Accordingly, Ms. Chen should not be granted access to HCI or VPCI.

* * * * *

For the reasons stated herein, the Content Companies object to providing HCI and VPCI (1) to each of the Remaining Submitting Individuals, (2) to each of the Comcast Submitting Individuals, to the extent that such individuals seek access to confidential information produced by parties other than Comcast, and (3) to each of the TWC Submitting Individuals, to the extent that such individuals seek access to confidential information produced by parties other than Time Warner Cable. A copy of this Objection is being provided to the Submitting Individuals' counsel, placing his or her employees on notice that they may not access such HCI or VPCI until this Objection (including the Application for Review referenced in this Objection) is finally resolved by the Commission and any court of competent jurisdiction.
