

This is my first comment on the matter of 'net neutrality' and my first message ever to the FCC. I ask the Commission to carefully consider any decision based on the requests of corporations. It never benefits the consumer and always benefits the shareholder. As public servants please be more mindful of the public you serve.