

60000978347.txt

Comcast refuses to help the community access broadband. Comcast refuses to offer the disabled a low-income price plan for broadband internet. People that are disabled (documented by federal assistance programs) should be given a low-income internet by Comcast. If not, the FCC should NOT allow Comcast to renew it's license. The disabled and seniors are being harmed by Comcast.