

60000981138.txt

The internet needs to stay OPEN AND AVAILABLE TO EVERYONE. It would be absolutely appalling to award large corporations the power to control it in any way, but particularly heinous to base it on money exchanging hands. Hasn't the American government screwed it's former middle class and lower class enough with the recent bank fiasco? Don't take away the ONE source of entertainment most people can afford.