

60000981782.txt

I believe that the large internet companies, should not be able to give faster download speeds to higher paying individuals and companies. Let the people have net neutrality.