

60000981869.txt

I'm just stating my support for Net Neutrality, No corporate entity no matter how good willed should have the ability to tamper or alter my access to, speed of access to, gate my access to, or place my access to content behind an ad or paywall. They also should not have the right to charge other companies for preferential treatment or throttle the speed of others as comcast did with netflix.