

60000982333.txt

I demand that the FCC do its duty, not for the telecom giants, but for the people whom they serve. Do your job and protect the internet by enforcing net neutrality. Even though the head of the FCC is a telecom puppet, the people demand what is constitutionally right. Protect freedom and enforce carrier rules evenly.