

60000982823.txt

Reclassifying the internet and how it is distributed as a utility is crucial to Free Speech and maintaining equal opportunities for start up companies. It is one of the most important issues for our country's future. Officially creating Net Neutrality will ensure that citizens of our country will indeed have freedom of speech. If it is not, then we are giving control of our primary source of information over to the cable corporations. This is not acceptable and is truly un-American.