

60000982913.txt

Dont let CBS along with Ion and Meredith dictate what should and should not be on which channel. The FCC should not give into corporate pressure and should help to protect smaller family run tv stations. When did it become ok for one station to rule every station. Shame on the FCC for not protecting and serving the public's interest.