

60000983103.txt

We need to keep the internet neutral. If we let the telecom companies have a multitiered system it is basically saying sure go ahead and have complete control over our internet. The internet shouldnt be run by coporations. It is a public entity that should be equally available at the same speeds for everyone. Keep net neutrality and keep the telecom companies out of regulating the internet