

60000985034.txt

I support Net Neutrality. I do still am dumbfounded that corporations get the ear of politicians the way they do... and that campaign finance reform hasn't stymied the direct flow of money from company to representative.