

60000985177.txt

As do most Americans, I believe in Democracy. And selling the internet to the cable companies is counter-intuitive to preserving a fair and equal Democracy. Rather, it gives those with the most money the loudest voice.

I support Net Neutrality and urge the FCC to do the same.