

60000986251.txt

The more I learn about net neutrality, the more I am sure it is best for the people of the United States. Anything else would create an unfair monopoly for broadband providers and hurt the value of the internet. Net neutrality is important in supporting our democracy. Any other decision you make will only support Corporations and hurt the American people