

60000987745.txt

As I write this comment, I am watching a re-run of MASH which was a terrific show and is not shown on other tv stations. Leave MeTV alone. I totally enjoy watching some of the older shows which are not available for viewing on the larger stations. The larger viewing stations have a large enough viewing audience. They don't need to go after smaller stations. And neither do you.