

60000989183.txt

Millions of people have spoken out in favor of strong Net Neutrality protections under Title II. I'm asking the FCC to honor my voice and the millions of others who demand Net Neutrality under Title II. You have a responsibility to protect the consumers' interests in America, not the interests of large corporations.