

60000990958.txt

Comcast's pay-to-play sword is already on my neck as they have a monopoly on internet service in my region. I must accept their rules or go without internet access. They must not be allowed to become an even more gigantic monopoly by merging with Time Warner. Eliminating competition is un-American. The communication and internet monopolies must be broken up, not allowed to consolidate even further.