

60000992823.txt

We should all follow Reagan's example and split large monopolies up like Att in the 1980s. We should demand and require of comcast and similar large companies to have internet listed as utility just like power and water and give true freedom to the last frontier of freedom left to this world.