

60000996521.txt

A communications monopoly such as what this proposed merger would result in is much too scary. An informed populace is critical to the development and continuation of a free democratic society. Such control of information would be devastating. Please do NOT allow this to happen. Thank you.