

60001001113.txt

This merger should be opposed as it takes away consumer choice. It is harmful because it creates a single entity (i.e. a single point of failure) that provides cable and internet access for a large segment of US population. That's too much power over our viewing habits as a nation.